

Beginnings and the American Revolution Exam Study Guide

Vikings	Declaration of Independence
Land Bridge theory	Lexington and Concord
Agricultural Revolution	Loyalists and Patriots
Treaty of Tordesillas	Battle of Saratoga
Columbian Exchange	Battle of Yorktown
Triangular Trade	Treaty of Paris
Jamestown	Republic
French and Indian War	Articles of Confederation
Sugar Act	Shay's Rebellion
Stamp Act	New Jersey Plan
Sons of Liberty	Virginia Plan
Townshend Acts	Great Compromise
Boston Massacre	3/5ths Compromise
Boston Tea Party	Popular Sovereignty
Coercive/Intolerable Acts	Federalism
First Continental Congress	Separation of Powers
Second Continental Congress	Checks and Balances
George Washington	Federalists and Anti-Federalists
Thomas Paine and Common Sense	James Madison
Thomas Jefferson	Bill of Rights

Understand the following concepts or ideas:

- What consequences (positive and negative) did the Columbian Exchange have for Europeans and Native Americans?
- What factors created a demand for African slaves in the New World?
- Why did the English begin establishing colonies along the eastern coast of North America?
- How did the development of the colonies differ?
- Explain the causes of the American Revolution.
- Explain the advantages and disadvantages for the British and the colonists in the Revolutionary War.
- Describe the role of the French in the Revolutionary War.
- Why did the colonists create such a weak central government under the Articles of Confederation?
- What problems did the Articles of Confederation create?

Beginnings and the American Revolution Exam Study Guide

Vikings	Declaration of Independence
Land Bridge theory	Lexington and Concord
Agricultural Revolution	Loyalists and Patriots
Treaty of Tordesillas	Battle of Saratoga
Columbian Exchange	Battle of Yorktown
Triangular Trade	Treaty of Paris
Jamestown	Republic
French and Indian War	Articles of Confederation
Sugar Act	Shay's Rebellion
Stamp Act	New Jersey Plan
Sons of Liberty	Virginia Plan
Townshend Acts	Great Compromise
Boston Massacre	3/5ths Compromise
Boston Tea Party	Popular Sovereignty
Coercive/Intolerable Acts	Federalism
First Continental Congress	Separation of Powers
Second Continental Congress	Checks and Balances
George Washington	Federalists and Anti-Federalists
Thomas Paine and Common Sense	James Madison
Thomas Jefferson	Bill of Rights

Understand the following concepts or ideas:

- What consequences (positive and negative) did the Columbian Exchange have for Europeans and Native Americans?
- What factors created a demand for African slaves in the New World?
- Why did the English begin establishing colonies along the eastern coast of North America?
- How did the development of the colonies differ?
- Explain the causes of the American Revolution.
- Explain the advantages and disadvantages for the British and the colonists in the Revolutionary War.
- Describe the role of the French in the Revolutionary War.
- Why did the colonists create such a weak central government under the Articles of Confederation?
- What problems did the Articles of Confederation create?